

Mick Burgess

WALSINGHAM
SUPPORT Everyone is different

Director of Operations & Development

What people like and admire about me

People said the following things about me:

- Always smiling
- Fun to be around
- Supportive
- Fearless and optimistic
- A great sense of humour

What's important to me

- Being with my partner, family and friends and spending time together and not taking life too seriously
- To be valued for the contribution I make at home and at work
- Respect and courtesy – good manners go a long way
- Fairness, equality and doing the right thing by people
- Respect my thoughts and opinions even if you disagree with them
- Doing a great job and knowing when I am at home, I can “switch off”
- Don't be perfect just always be genuine, authenticity is very important. Being open and honest and admitting mistakes

How to support me

- Don't overload me with emails, a quick chat goes a long way
- Be clear about what you are expecting from me
- Keeping to time and knowing I can keep to my own planned calendar appointments
- Provide me with simple summaries, not excessive or unnecessary detail
- Be positive, even when things are frustrating and you want to scream, don't bottle it up and keep smiling!

